

THE HERON PARTY

PARTY MANIFESTO JANUARY 2024

FOREIGN POLICY

CULTURAL PRIORITY

MAKE IT WORK FOR BRITAIN.

A Heron Party government will continue to prioritise our region, and will not actively pursue any more foreign relations. We will lean into the merits of international diplomacy with regards to regional culture, development, and recruitment.

Our foreign endeavours shall serve to benefit our region, by prioritising a few regions of significance to our Empire.

DOMESTIC POLICY

CULTURAL BOOST

CONTINUE TO DEVELOP
REGIONAL AFFAIRS.

A Heron Party Government will continue the valuable work of the previous term, working hard with members of cabinet and the public to provide increasing numbers of regional opportunities.

Valuable contributions will be recommended for awards and will be publicly commended.

Large emphasis will be placed on State Visits with other regions, to help introduce new people to the Empire in a bid to promote recruitment.

Likewise, emphasis will be placed on the presence of sporting activities like the Racing and Football league, to drive regional activity.

ECONOMIC PLANNING

CONDUCT A THOROUGH
REVIEW ON ECONOMIC FUNCTION.

Following the passage of the Economic Freeze in the previous term, the time has come to begin working towards a new system.

A Heron Party Government will firstly produce a report on the previous successes and shortcomings of the economy, and assess the viability of available routes. The report will contain multiple suggestions, taking into account prior reviews, and will provide the foundation for a Heron Party Government to begin reintroducing the economy.

Economic function will be reintroduced step-by-step, to continually promote cultural engagement without the need for financial incentives.

THE BBC CHARTER

REFORM THE BBC INTO A
MORE DYNAMIC
ORGANISATION.

The BBC has the potential to be one of our region's most prided aspects, but it lies dormant with infrequent articles being posted.

A Heron Party Government will rewrite the BBC Charter, and work hard to include the BBC in our regional life. We will open the BBC up for free contribution from any citizen, and will openly commend contribution to the service. Journalism will become a valuable part of our society again.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY

BRING OXFORD INTO THE MODERN DAY.

As another regional pillar, Oxford University has been allowed to decay through excessive limitation and obligation, without ever addressing the core issues with the organisation.

A Heron Party Government will begin to introduce engagement and regional purpose with Oxford University through research councils, creative opportunities, and free-to-take degrees. Some jobs could potentially require degrees, such as judiciary profession.

Oxford's charter of operations will be rewritten to allow a more dynamic structure with 'ad-hoc' lecturers and guest speeches from members of the public.

GOVERNMENTAL OBLIGATIONS AND OPERATIONS

MINISTERIAL DELEGATION

GRANTING THE AUTHORITY
MINISTERS.

A Heron Party government will implement more routine progress checks to ensure that ministers are completing the core functions of their roles, whilst maintaining the important balance in life.

Ministers will experience higher culpability if they are not fulfilling their obligations to the state and public.

Authority of oversight will be delegated to ministers of government to allow for better management of resources.

ORGANISING MINISTRIES

STREAMLINING THE GOVERNMENT'S FUNCTION.

A higher degree of structure is required within government to ensure progress is being made.

A Heron Party Government will move away from the flat-level structure and implement derivative ministries to create clearer lines of reporting.
